Give the gift of inclusion!

Date: November 1-21, with 11/21 being the biggest day of giving in the state
GTM Goal: $25,000

Your donation will help us continue providing essential inclusion services, ensuring that children, teens, and adults with disabilities can fully participate in their local city park and recreation programs alongside their peers building independence, confidence, and social connections. Every dollar makes a difference, directly impacting inclusion in your community.

Become a Matching Donor

Join us in making a significant impact by becoming a matching donor for Reach for Resources during Give to the Max! Your generous contribution will help amplify the support we can provide to individuals with disabilities through our inclusion services, ensuring they have access to essential supports. By committing to match donations, you inspire others to give, knowing their gifts will be doubled, thus maximizing the positive change we can create together. Let's unite in our mission to empower individuals and build a more inclusive community. Your support as a matching donor is crucial—together, we can make a real difference!

To learn more about matching donations, please reach out to Kate Bottiger, Executive Director at kbottiger@reachforresources.org or 952-200-5746 .
