

Community Living Specialist

Pay: $18/hr +mileage

Summary of Job Description

The key goal of this position is to provide In-Home Supports and Semi-Independent Living Services on behalf of Reach for Resources, Inc. It is expected that Community Living Specialists at Reach will work with each person, the person's family, and the person's team to develop, put into practice, and periodically evaluate the individual's person-centered plan. It is also expected that Community Living Specialists at Reach for Resources will represent the agency in a courteous and professional manner in all phases of the position.

Essential Job Duties

1. Individuals Served

- To put into practice Reach's core values (passion for excellence, compassion, integrity, teamwork, respect and inclusion), aid in self-awareness and in decision making for those assigned to work with. Also of critical importance is the development of a trusting, supportive relationship with the person and their family.
- Understanding and adhering to the philosophy of the Community Living Department; meeting each individual where they are and promoting independence through doing tasks with the person and not for the person.
- To evaluate each person's skills and needs using 245D required paperwork including Progress Reviews, Outcome Statement Plan, Support Plan Addendum, Self-Management Assessment and Individual Abuse Prevention Plan.
- Develop an Outcome Statement Plan, with each person and their team input, which addresses mutually agreed upon need areas.
- Put into action the Outcome Statement Plan with technical assistance, resource information, and listening and helping skills.
- Develop pleasant and respectful working relationships with parents, county social workers, contracted case managers, and other team members to encourage their participation in the person's individualized plan. Staff may also need to clarify with family or others what type of role or interaction may be most helpful in working with each person and/or family.

- Schedule regular appointments with each person and adhere to the schedule.
- To establish a 24-hour-a-day plan for when a person is in crisis.
- To consult with direct manager, other providers and other community resources to help the person with their individualized outcomes and opportunities to establish engagement in their community.
- To carry out all quarterly, semi-annual, and annual program planning and be responsible for preparing and completing 245D required paperwork. Staff will also be expected to make sure that all team members receive copies of the reports in a timely fashion.

2. General

- Maintain average weekly billable hours of 75% of total working hours (e.g. 30 out of 40 working hours per week must be billable for a full-time employee).
- Review and maintain files to make sure they are up-to-date and contain all required materials (i.e. Progress Review, Outcome Statement Plan, Support Plan Addendum, SMA, IAPP and signed policies and procedures.). All staff are expected to create and file their own documents.
- To submit weekly billing, mileage, expenses and timesheet to the manager in a timely manner.
- To participate in resource and skill development with the direct manager and to ask for assistance in developing program planning if it is wanted or needed. Such assistance may also come from other managers or directors at Reach for Resources
- To participate in staff job evaluation with the direct manager and/or department Director. To attend and participate in regular staff meetings.
- Always adhere to company policies and procedures.
- Represent Reach in a positive, professional manner in speech and dress and conduct all business with the utmost integrity.
- Perform other duties and responsibilities as assigned by management.

Minimum Qualifications

- Knowledge customarily acquired through post high school education; experience in the field may be substituted for education.
- Communication skills, both oral and written
- Organizational skills
- Instructing skills
- Strong professional discernment skills
- The ability to perform within a team framework
- Must have a valid driver's license, reliable transportation and the ability to transport those served in employee's own vehicle
